OUR ORGANISATION

Whitehorse Manningham Regional Library Corporation delivers high quality library services to the communities of Whitehorse and Manningham. The Corporation operates branch libraries at Blackburn, Box Hill, Bulleen, Doncaster, Nunawading, The Pines, Vermont South and Warrandyte. Online services are provided through www.wml.vic.gov.au.

POSITION OBJECTIVE

To assist with the provision of library services to people who are unable to visit the library due to age, illness, isolation or disability.

KEY RESPONSIBILITY AREAS

Key responsibilities are:

- To deliver and collect library materials for patrons in a specified Home Library Service Round.
- To deliver materials to individuals in their own homes or group living facilities such as retirement villages, special accommodation or aged care facilities.
- To provide communication between Home Library Service Patrons and the Library, including specific information requests when appropriate.
- To provide social inclusion to Home Library Service patrons through personal connection.

ACCOUNTABILITY AND EXTENT OF AUTHORITY

Volunteers are expected to:

- Provide regular updates to the Home Library Service staff regarding patrons and their needs.
- Advise Home Library Service staff as soon as possible if they are unable to deliver their round.
- Make deliveries of library materials according to an agreed delivery schedule.

JUDGEMENT AND DECISION MAKING

Library staff will always be available to provide guidance and advice.

Volunteers must have knowledge of Library loans policies and procedures and have the ability to adhere to them.

KEY COMPETENCIES

Specialist skills and knowledge:

- Ability to perform Home Library Service delivery tasks following systematic procedures.
- Understanding of the function of the position within the organisation, including the application of relevant policies.
- Strong commitment to quality and customer service.

Organisational skills:

Commitment to undertake the delivery of nominated Home Library Service Rounds on agreed days and weeks.

Interpersonal skills:

- Sound, friendly, helpful and efficient communication skills.
- Support for the achievement of team objectives before individual goals.
- Commitment to providing services to people with a wide range of abilities and circumstances.
- Commitment to respecting the privacy of the Home Library Service client and their needs.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

Valid Victorian driver's licence and own vehicle are essential.

All volunteers are required to undertake a National Police Check and Working With Children Check prior to commencement and at regular intervals thereafter.

INHERENT REQUIREMENTS OF THE POSITION

Substantial manual handling is an inherent physical requirement of working in this role, which may include loading and pushing trolleys and loading and unloading deliveries of library materials from vehicles.

Home library service volunteers may be exposed to situations and conversations that require them to be supportive and empathetic.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Organisation and communication skills
- Ability to contribute as a team member with a quality and customer service focus
- An understanding of issues relating to aging and disability, and the ability to connect with patrons in an aged care facility potentially with high care needs
- Ability to understand and apply policies and procedures
- Valid Victorian driver's licence and access to a vehicle
- Satisfactory Police Check and completion of a statutory declaration if required

REMUNERATION

No remuneration.

OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION

Home Library Service Rounds

- Volunteers are allocated a Home Library Service Round, consisting of approximately six patrons located in the same delivery area.
- Volunteers or Library staff select library materials for each patron in a Round.
- Volunteers deliver the materials to patrons and collect items for return to the library.
- Volunteers use their own vehicle for deliveries for which a mileage allowance can be claimed.
- Where there is not an existing vacancy to deliver an ongoing Round, volunteers may be placed on the emergency delivery list. Emergency volunteers may be contacted at short notice to deliver when regulars are unable to do so, however they can decline if it is inconvenient to do so. Emergency volunteers are offered an ongoing Round when one becomes available.
- Rounds are delivered according to the calendar of delivery days; every 3 weeks.
- Time taken to complete a Round will vary depending on the number of patrons. Approximately 2 to 3 hours is the usual commitment required.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

Occupational Health and Safety

WML is committed to providing all staff and volunteers with a safe work environment. Under the Corporation's Occupational Health and Safety Policy all volunteers are required to act responsibly and in a manner that does not put the health and safety of themselves or others in the workplace at risk. Volunteers must diligently observe and maintain a duty of care to themselves and all others within the work environment. All duties are to be performed in accordance with accepted work practices and procedures.

Equal Opportunity Human Rights and Bullying

The Corporation is committed to the principles of Equal Opportunity and Human Rights and believes that all employees and volunteers should be able to work in an environment free of discrimination and harassment. Volunteers and staff are encouraged to support each other in creating and maintaining an environment that is free of harassment.

All volunteers of the Corporation have a responsibility to treat each other fairly and with respect and act in accordance with the Occupational Health and Safety, Equal Opportunity and Bullying in the Workplace policies. As an employer, the Corporation will not defend or support discriminatory actions of staff or volunteers that are unlawful.

Privacy

The Corporation is committed to complying with the Victorian Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014. The Corporation recognises the importance of the privacy of personal information collected by the Library Service and is committed to ensuring that personal information is appropriately stored and managed. All employees and volunteers are required to follow the Corporations Information Privacy Policy at all times.

Code of Conduct

All volunteers are required to observe the standards of conduct and behaviour outlined in the Code of Conduct. A breach of the Code may result in counselling and a substantial breach may result in termination of the volunteer placement.

Child Safety Commitment

WML is committed to the safety and well-being of all children and young people participating in our programs and visiting our libraries. All volunteers are expected to adhere to the Corporation's Child Safe Policy, acknowledging their right to be treated with respect and protected from harm. All volunteers must hold a current Working With Children Check.

Vaccinations

Home library service volunteers are expected to comply with Covid-19 mandated vaccination requirements. They must also comply with the vaccination requirements of the facility they are delivering a service to.
